

Third Annual

Charlottesville Family History Conference

Saturday, March 28th
9:00am to 4:00pm

Registration Begins at 8:30am / Keynote at 9am

NEW Location: Charlottesville - Airport Road LDS Chapel
1275 Timberwood Boulevard at Airport Road
½ Mile West of Route 29 on Airport Road near C-Ville Airport

For more information,
please visit

www.charlottesville-fhc.org

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Scot French, Ph. D.

Director & Associate Professor
Virginia Center for Digital History

FREE ADMISSION

Donations Accepted
To Cover Conference Expenses Only

PLAN TO SPEND THE DAY

Bring Your Bag Lunch

Beverages Provided

For additional information, please call the Family History Center at 434-964-1715
or contact us via the website shown above

Classes, Seminars & Displays

(Sample of more than 20 topics being offered)

Basic Genealogy
Research

Internet Research
Resources

What's New In Family History
Technology

Publishing & Sharing
Your Family History
Research

Using Land & Tax
Records To Track
Your Ancestors

Researching African-
American Ancestry

Genealogy
Resources In Our Region

Finding Our Military &
Immigrant Ancestors

Sponsored by the
Charlottesville Family History Center of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the Central Virginia Genealogy Association