

The Fifth Annual
CHARLOTTESVILLE FAMILY HISTORY CONFERENCE

*“Your Roots Run Deep . . .
Start Digging!”*

Saturday, April 16, 2011

Doors open at 8:00 a.m.

- Something for everyone
(but a special invitation to those beginning their excavation)
- Free!
(just bring your curiosity and a sack lunch; beverages provided)

1275 Timberwood Boulevard
Charlottesville, Virginia 22911
(between Charlottesville Airport and Route 29)

Sponsored by: The Charlottesville Family History Center of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the Central Virginia Genealogical Association

9:00-10:15

Featured Speaker – Bernie Gracy

Vice President of Strategy and New Business Development for Pitney Bowes®

“Location-Based Genealogy”

An exciting new perspective on research which emphasizes the influence of geography and community on how, why, and with whom families interacted

10:30-11:15

“Grab Your Shovel...Let’s Get Started” – Shelley Murphy

Resources beginners should look at first and “old-timers” should review again and again

11:30-12:15

“All the Gold in the Census” – Katie Derby

The big and little facts about the census—things you’ve always wanted to know but were afraid to ask

1:30-2:15

“Delving into the Records” – Lorraine Quillon

After you’ve checked out what everyone else has done, start your own investigation of the actual documents

2:30-3:15

“Keeping It All Together” – Group Presentation

What to do with all those pieces of information you already have...or soon will have